

We give you the financial skills, knowledge and confidence to make the right decisions and get the best results.

Finance for Non-Financial Managers

Module One

a stand-alone course which is also part of the Certificate Programme in Practical Finance (CPPF)

Course Overview

This course, run online over four mornings, is the pathway into finance, moving slowly in a carefully structured progression, with plenty of practical exercises each step along the way.

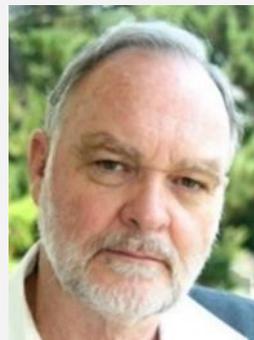

By leading you gradually into the world of finance, it not only teaches the structure and terminology of business finance, but opens your mind to the way of thinking that is specific to financial reporting. It covers sufficient ground for you to feel confident in discussing financial results, and moves slowly enough for you to retain what you have learnt.

- Recognised as a qualifying module for the CPPF programme;
- A pathway into finance, moving slowly in a carefully structured progression;
- Learn the structure and terminology of business finance;
- Opens the mind to the way of thinking that is specific to financial reporting.

Successful candidates will receive a certificate from Johannesburg School of Finance. They will also earn credits towards the School's Certificate Programme in Practical Finance (CPPF). For more on the CPPF, see www.jhbfin.co.za.

The Course Presenter:

John Mitchell

John is a Past Director of Johannesburg School of Finance, a member of the Investment Analysts Society and holds a Degree in Philosophy. He spent the early part of his career in the South African mining industry initially in human resources and later managing an in-house printing professional designer and presenter of financial courses for the past twenty-two years.

His empathic and interactive style makes his courses both practical and enjoyable. He is able to illustrate the course material with examples from his own extensive business experience.
